

“Jorge made a choice that empowers him to keep doing what he loves—staying in tune.”

Empowered By

- Spending quality time with his granddaughter while on dialysis
- Taking advantage of Baxter’s Global Destinations Travel Program, helps him travel to see his family while on peritoneal dialysis

Jorge’s Concerns

- Managing his end-stage renal disease

Jorge’s Priorities

- Bonding with his granddaughter through their shared passion of playing the guitar
- Continuing to travel to visit his many family members located throughout the US while on dialysis

Jorge

Jorge loves teaching his granddaughter to play guitar, but spending three days a week traveling to the clinic for dialysis was hitting a sour note.

So, he asked his doctor and chose home peritoneal dialysis empowered by Baxter. Now with Baxter’s comprehensive products, training and support, this musical duo is back in tune. Music to his ears.

The information given does not constitute medical advice; the material is intended for informational purposes only.

Be sure to discuss treatment options with your doctor, nurses, family, and friends so that you can determine if PD is the therapy option for you.

Baxter is a registered trademark of Baxter International Inc. USMP/MG232/18-0039e 02/19